

2013 Campaign Award Winners

Super Stars – Top 3 highest campaigns

1. BP Cherry Point Refinery
2. Phillips66 Ferndale Refinery
3. PeaceHealth St. Joseph Medical Center

Community Impact Award

(Non-Profit that went above and beyond during the Campaign)

Interfaith Community Health Center

Community Partner Award

(Extraordinary year-round partnership with UW and dedication to the community)

Whatcom Educational Credit Union

Campaign Coordinator of the Year

(volunteer(s) who put in a tremendous amount of effort and advocacy in the Campaign at their work-place)

Susan Arrigoni, GeoEngineers

Joseph & Anne McClain

(Outstanding success in this year's campaign with exceptional support inspiring others to the highest level)

US Bank

Company Achievement Award

(Steady and multiyear long excellent and overall corporate support)

PowerTek

Spirit of United Way Award

(Campaign that embodies the "spirit" of United Way – Going above and beyond, smaller campaigns that worked exceptionally hard)

Mills Electric

Extra Mile Award (New in 2014)

(Committed to stepping up the campaign effort this year, trying new things, raising awareness, setting goals, etc.)

PUD #1 of Whatcom County

LIVE UNITED Awards

(embodied giving, advocating, and volunteering. Given to only 20 of the 150 participating organizations)

Anvil Corporation
Bellingham Cold Storage
Brigid Collins Family Services Center
Cargill
CH2M HILL
City of Bellingham
Comcast
Industrial Credit Union
LTI
MISTRAS Group, Inc.
Nooksack Valley School District
Puget Sound Energy
Samson Rope
Sean Humphrey House
Seattle Manufacturing Company
Sound Beverage
SPIE
The Unity Group, a Division of HUB International Northwest
Whatcom Council of Governments
Whidbey Island Bank